When the darkness of the night and the lonlies set in-
I'll flip the pages of my mind-
And the picture of you I will find.

Those crazy nights, I do remember in my youth.
Those were the best times, most of all.

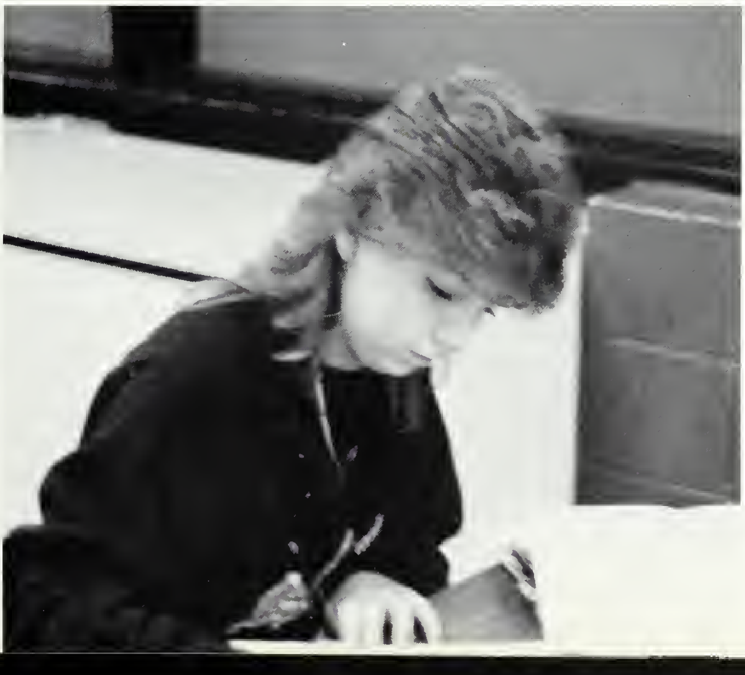
Time may hold the future,
But the past will never change
Times that mean so much,
In memories, always remain.



Can it be that it was all so simple then? Or has time rewritten every line?

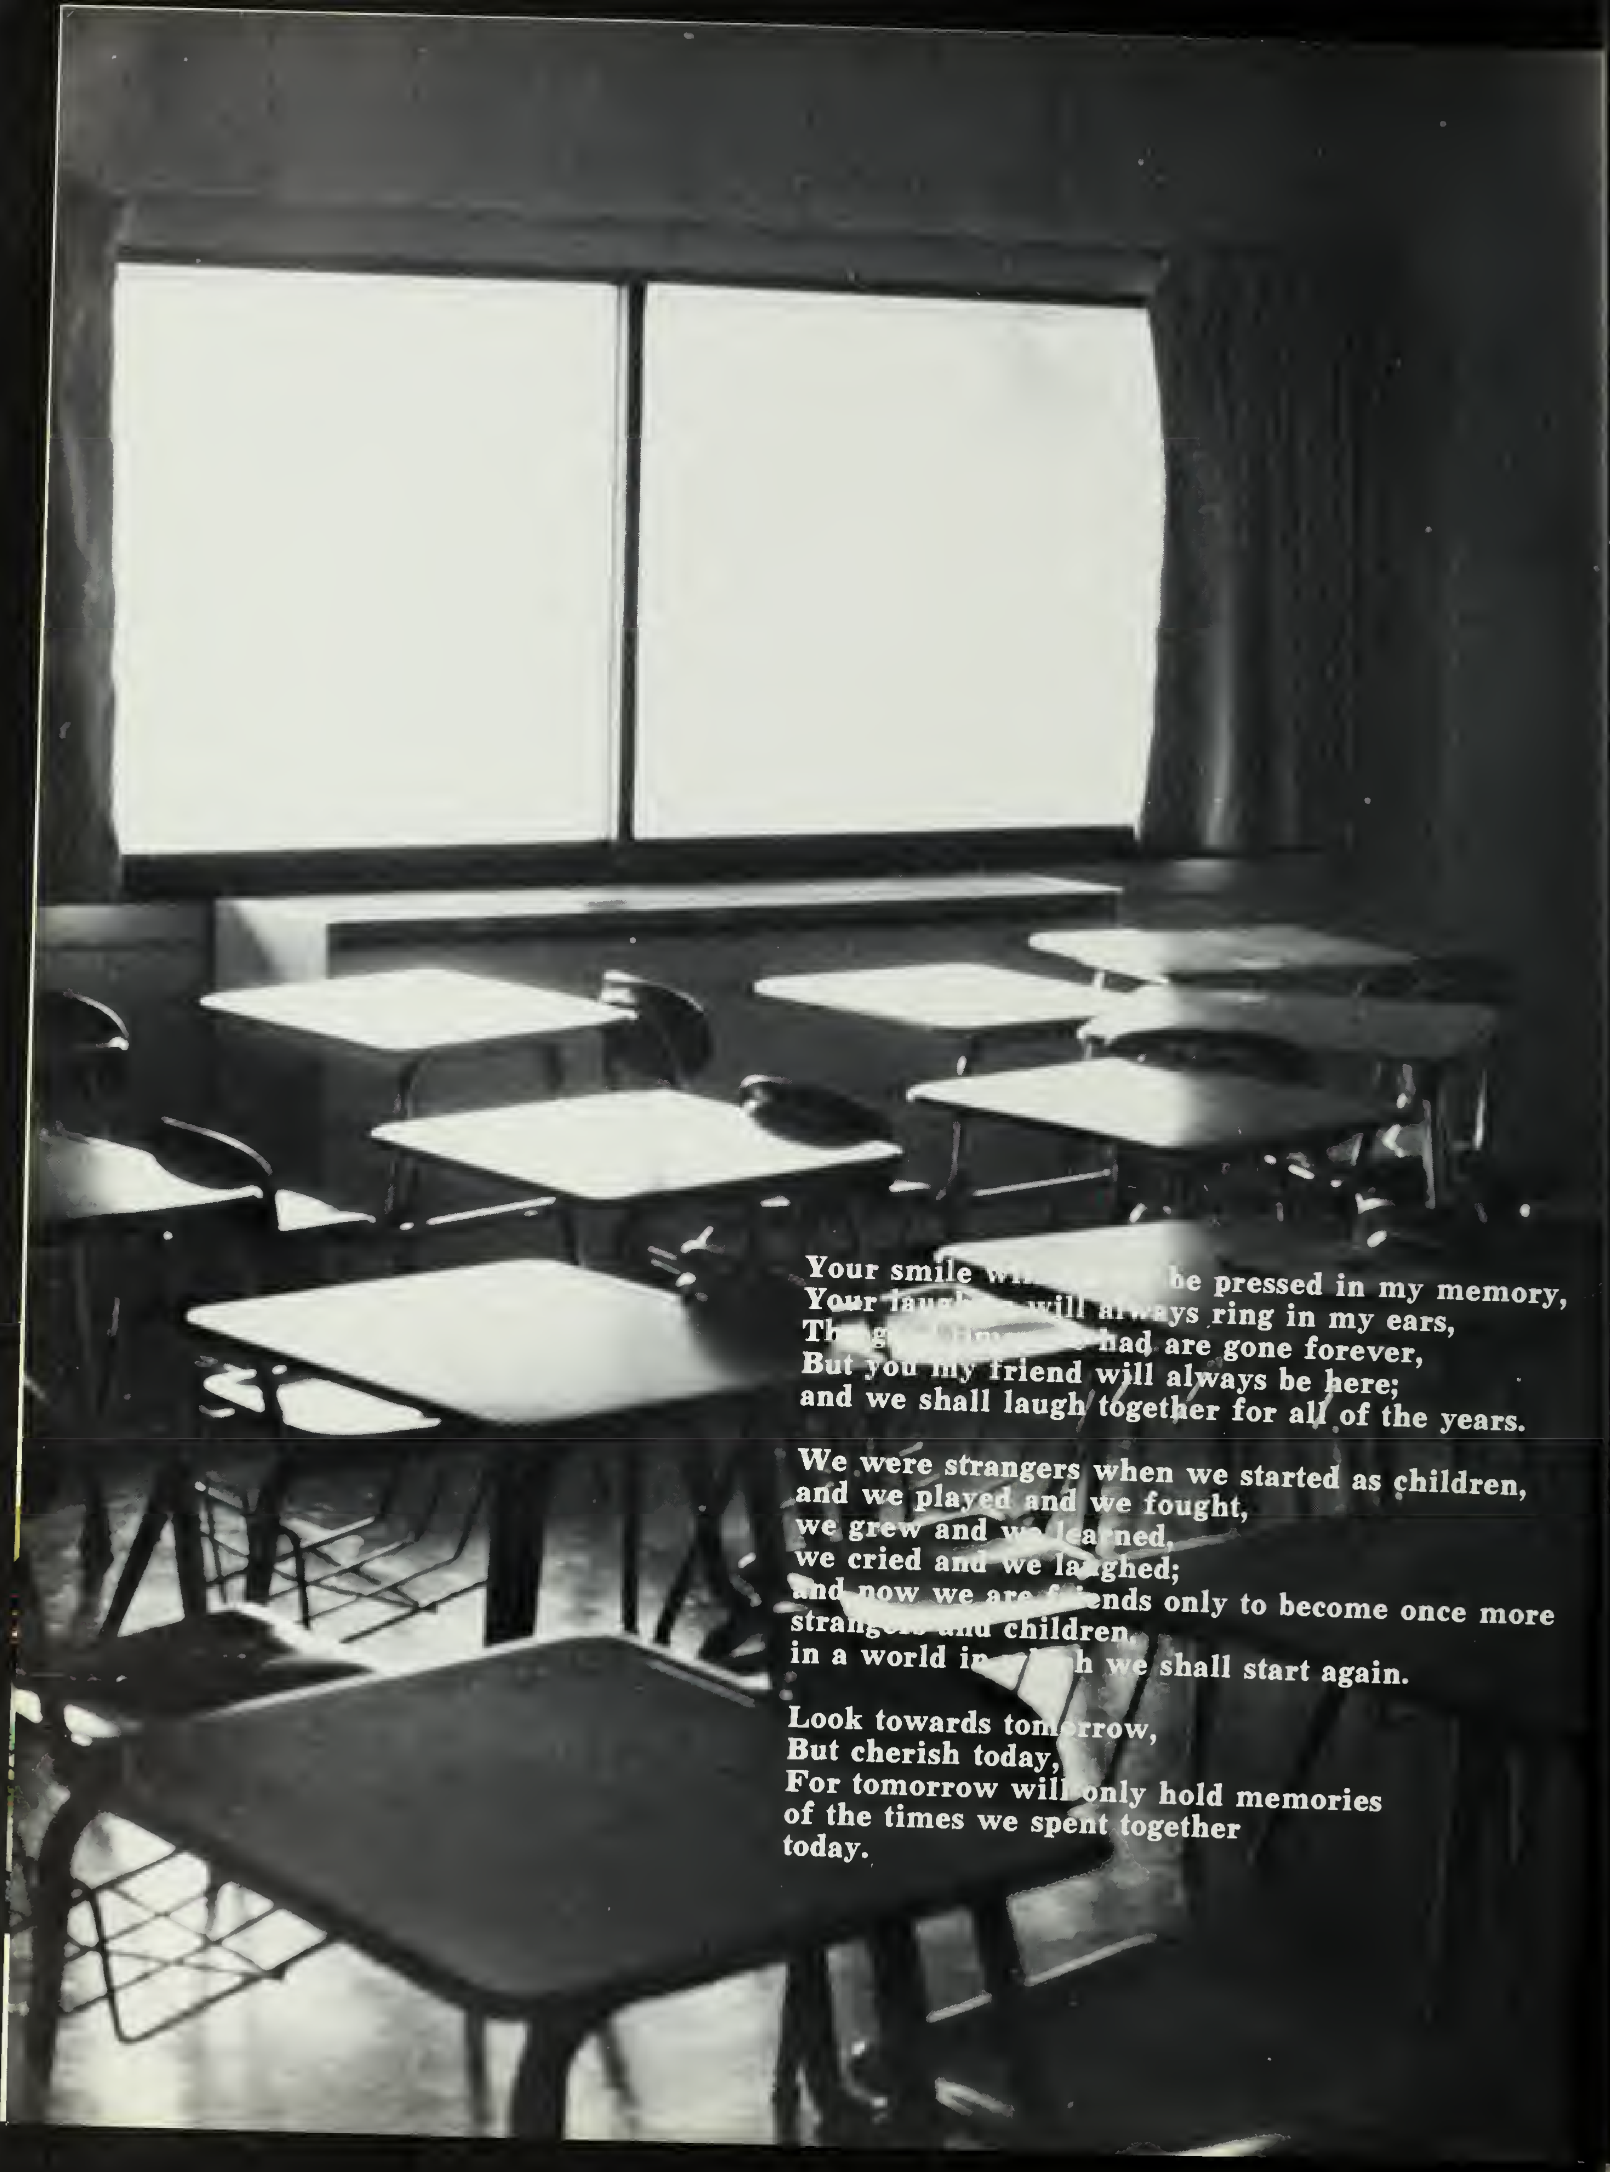
DEDICATION TO

OUR PARENTS

When searching for a person to dedicate the yearbook to, there is always difficulty trying to determine who is the most deserving and who has given the most support and understanding to all of us. We on the Meta staff have decided to break away from tradition and deviate from the normal mode of choosing a faculty member. We have decided to dedicate this 1985 Meta to the most important people in our lives, our parents.

From our earliest days, they have cared for and nurtured us. They have provided for us and have shared our successes and our downfalls. They have given us advice, support and discipline. Though the high school years are the most difficult and communication is not always at its' peak, they have been there and have made an effort to teach us morals and shape our lives.

Though sometimes we argue and don't understand one another, we feel their love and know that they care. None of us would be where we are today without them. We appreciate all that they have done for us and love them very much. Mom and Dad.-Thanks!



Your smile will [illegible] be pressed in my memory,
Your laughter will always ring in my ears,
Though [illegible] times [illegible] had are gone forever,
But you my friend will always be here;
and we shall laugh together for all of the years.

We were strangers when we started as children,
and we played and we fought,
we grew and we learned,
we cried and we laughed;
and now we are friends only to become once more strangers and children,
in a world in which we shall start again.

Look towards tomorrow,
But cherish today,
For tomorrow will only hold memories of the times we spent together today.

SUPERINTENDENT

TO THE CLASS OF 1985

I am pleased to have this opportunity to pen a few remarks to the Class of 1985 upon your graduation from Peabody Veterans Memorial High School. This yearbook serves not only as a record of your graduating year but on a broader scale serves as reminder of your accomplishments and efforts during all of your years in school. Those accomplishments were considerable, some of which were arrived at not without pain, nor without a few setbacks along the way. Easy or hard, these events have left their mark on you and the wealth of those experiences will serve you well as you move into the world of employment or on to further education.

During the two years that I have had the pleasure of knowing you, I have personally witnessed your successes, and have attempted to contribute to them when the opportunities arose. I look forward to hearing of your continued successes. I know they will come for you have proven yourself.

Best of luck in all of your future endeavors.

Sincerely,

Charles J. McCarthy, Jr.

High school years are the best,
They're so wild and carefree;
You don't realize how good they are,
Until they can no longer be.

Going on is the hardest part,
You leave your friends behind;
But the knowledge that you learned,
Will always stay in your mind.

Though you leave this place in body,
In spirit you'll always be here;
Your mind may be far away,
But your soul will float near.

There were good times and bad,
You had fun, you cried tears;
But nothing will ever replace,
These wonderful high school years.

So don't despair my friends,
As we leave these hallowed halls;
Your high school years have to end,
When your future calls.

META

PEABODY VETERANS MEMORIAL HIGH SCHOOL

485 Lowell Street; Peabody, Massachusetts 01960

As you flip through the pages of this book, a chronicle of your high school years tied up in some two-hundred odd pages, you only see the finished product. It is difficult for anyone to comprehend the true amount of planning, time, effort, changes and difficulties that are involved in the production of a yearbook. In the end, when it is in my hands I suppose that all of that will be put behind me as well.

This year's Meta is different than any other in the history of P.V.M.H.S. in that it includes the entire year and therefore entailed even greater obstacles to overcome. None of this could have been possible without the constant (literally) supervision and guidance of Mr. Frank Hardy. I am sure he doesn't know that I am fully aware of this. Also, Mr. Tom Keeley, our Jostens representative has been a life saver and a constant support system throughout the entire year.

On behalf of the entire Meta staff and the class of 1985, I would like to extend my sincere thanks to these two extremely dedicated men. I hope that this book will be a treasure chest for all of your high school memories in the years to come.

THE META STAFF

Ilene Stockhamer, Cheryl Riley, Susan Sapienza, Susan Seed, Michael Rhodes, Grace Ann Crupi, Lori Glazer, Sheila Hunt, Eric Ricci, Sheila Connors, Stephanie Port, Kathy O'Hara, Renee Retroccione, Dorene Brothers, Lisa Houle, Stacey Tullo, Donna Parry, Lisa Kalfin, Chris Buckridge, Stacey Kepnes, Lisa Obelsky, Marcie Leavitt, Julie Shiff, Janice Pressman, Denise Turner, Michelle Giangegorio, Laureen Goggin, Stacy Bougas, Erin Onos, Chris Melota, Linda Mowder, Donna Nathenson, Donna Firacano, Alisa Martine, Laurie Salvatore, Anne Marie Shaimás, Mike Smith, Sue Story, Diane Woodworth

For everything its season and for every activity under heaven its time:
a time to be born, a time to die;
a time to plant, a time to uproot;
a time to kill, a time to heal;
a time to pull down, a time to build up;
a time to weep, a time to laugh;
a time for mourning, a time for dancing;
a time to scatter stones, a time to gather them;
a time to embrace, a time to refrain from embracing;
a time to seek, a time to lose;
a time to keep, a time to throw away;
a time to tear, a time to mend;
a time for silence, a time for speech;
a time to love, a time to hate;
a time for war, a time for peace.

To the Members of the Class of 1985:

It is my loss that I have not had the opportunity to know you on a more personal basis before you leave Peabody Veterans Memorial and Peabody Vocational High School.

Please accept my congratulations and best wishes for a bright and rewarding future. You are uniquely prepared to meet the challenges of today's technical society while achieving personal satisfaction and self-fulfillment.

The time has come to utilize the skills you have developed. Good Luck!

Time has flowed so quickly, these past few fleeting years;
And the memories look so bright now, the laughter and the tears.
The best years of our lives, the times we spent together;
The feelings that we've shared that will be with us forever.

Our victories and our losses, the agony and the thrill;
That feeling of unity that lingers with us still.
We dream towards the future, yet look back towards yesterday;
All that we've accomplished, those who've helped along the way.

We'll strive for what we want and in time we will see;
Our success growing closer, as we become the best that we can be.
We'll move on in our seperate ways as we say goodbye;
But as we move on to start a new life, our memories will never die.

We may long to capture the moments that have passed us by so fast;
But as tomorrow creeps upon us, we will never forget the past.

If you think you are beaten, you are;
If you think you are not, you don't.
If you'd like to win, but think you can't,
It's almost a cinch you won't.
If you think you'll lose, you're lost,
For out in the world we find Success begins with a fellow's will;
It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you're outclassed, you are;
You've got to think high to rise.
You've got to be sure of yourself before
You can ever win first prize.
Life's battles don't always go
To the stronger or faster man;
But soon or late the man who wins
Is the one who thinks he can.

Every day of our friendship is as exciting as the first rays of a new dawn. Time may pass and space may seperate us, but distance cannot alter feelings and trust between true friends who realize that the same sun shines on us all and the same common bond is felt in the heart. As our friendship grows and days become years, we will look at our friendship as a priceless gift given to our yesterdays and waiting for our tomorrows.

GRADUATION

Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.

There are some who can still remember
All the things we used to do
But the days of our youth are numbered
And the ones who survive it few
Oh, I can still see the smiling faces
When the times were so good
All in the old familiar places
I'd go back if I could.

Well it's a hard thing to face the music
But it's something everybody's got to do
So I hope that I can always remember
All the crazy times we had to go through
Now it's a dream that's slowly fading
And I don't want it to go
All of the memories are evading
And I want you to know.

Now we've traveled across the oceans
And we've seen what there is to see
But I guess it's not the proper solution
Cause it's all about the same to me
Now I look back and it makes me wonder
Why we just couldn't see
All of the battles that we won and fought there
And I wish that I could be with the.

People of the wind
I want to see them again
It's where we used to be free
And that's the place for me
It's just a state of mind
A thing that's so hard to find with the people of the wind.

CONGRATULATIONS AND BEST WISHES FROM THE CLASS OF 1987

CONGRATULATIONS
FROM
THE CLASS OF 1986

Dear Fellow Members of the Class of 1985:

Our class has overcome many obstacles which have been placed in our way. Changes surrounded us; the Higgins-Kennedy merger, a new principal and above all, a new attendance policy. It wa a combined effort that brought us out on top. We held together and beat the odds.

Here we are now at the end of the line and after all things are considered we are able to stand tall and show our Tanner pride. We should be proud of our accomplishments. There is no shame in the few times that we've stumbled in the past; we must look at our mistakes and realize that we've learned from them. Our errors have gained us maturity and responsibility which in turn helps us to determine our future goals. The answers for attaining these goals lie within us, each and every one of us.

Our Senior year has been one which we will always remember. We've had good times and memories which we'll treasure forever. As we go our seperate ways, we wish you all the best of luck and hope that your years at Peabody Veterans Memorial High School will be rich and special-years that you will never forget.

Stephanie, Bruce, Susan, Greg and Mrs. Irish
